

Mansfield Road, Wanstead

Offers In Excess Of £450,000 Share of Freehold

- One bedroom conversion
- Original features
- Central Location
- Loft area
- First Floor
- Own entrance door
- Sash windows

Perched on the edge of Wanstead High Street (0.2 miles) with its array of shops, bars, restaurants and two Central Line stations, the location of this apartment is highly sought after.

You are also close to the stunning Wanstead Park and Flats, where you can enjoy beautiful walks and bike rides past the lakes and forest.

This first floor one bedroom conversion with loft area oozes charm and character befitting its era and when combined with the high ceilings, exposed wood floorboards, sash windows, original doors and fireplace the home creates the perfect mix of contemporary flare against the characterful features.

The property is accessed via your own front door, the hallway lending itself well for useful storage of coats bags and shoes. Ascending to the first floor, the accommodation consists of a spacious sitting room with feature fireplace and cast-iron stove whilst the large sash window ensures the space is flooded by natural light.

Leading through to the kitchen, you will find a range of white high gloss cabinets with integrated appliances complemented by contrasting work surfaces and metro tiled splashbacks. The metro tiling is echoed through into the bathroom, which is fitted with a white suite and has a heated towel rail with school style radiator.

The double bedroom spans the width of the front of the building, offering a generous space enhanced by two sash windows and an original fitted cupboard.

The loft area is accessed via a staircase from the lounge, has a Velux window and fitted carpet.
