Families will appreciate the choice of schools in the area — Central Park Primary (Ofsted ‘Good’, 0.2 miles) and two ‘Outstanding’-rated primaries, St Edwards (0.4 miles) and Cleves (0.5 miles), all within easy walking distance. Central Park and Plashet Park are both just 0.4 miles away, offering green space for outdoor time.

The house itself is in need of updating throughout but has plenty of potential. Downstairs, two original reception rooms have been opened up to create a through lounge, with windows front and back letting in natural light.

The kitchen sits at the rear, with a small rear addition that could work well as a utility or be opened up to make a larger kitchen space (subject to the usual permissions). Upstairs are three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The rear garden includes a side return with storage cupboard and space for extension (STPP) or can be landscaped to suit. The property is offered for sale with no onward chain, ideal for those wishing to move quickly.
