The solid 1970s design ensures every room is flooded with natural light thanks to large windows, creating a warm, welcoming vibe throughout the day.

Step inside and you're greeted by an expansive living space; the open-plan lounge, dining area and kitchen flow together seamlessly, making it perfect for hosting friends or just stretching out and relaxing. The sleek kitchen boasts dark grey cabinetry, matching countertops, and a central island that subtly zones the space while adding extra functionality. Head upstairs and you'll find two seriously spacious double bedrooms, easily fitting a double bed or a twin setup, with plenty of wardrobe space to boot. The bathroom is fully tiled and beautifully finished, complete with a separate bathtub and a freestanding shower — ideal for both busy mornings and weekend wind-downs.

Outside, residents enjoy communal gardens, private garage parking, and the added bonus of a share of freehold. And when it comes to location it's just 0.9 miles from both Wanstead Underground and Wanstead Park Overground, with easy links into Liverpool Street and beyond. For downtime, Wanstead Flats is right on your doorstep — perfect for morning runs, long walks, or lazy Sunday strolls.
