Distinguished by its striking mock-Tudor façade and beautifully maintained communal gardens, the development offers both curb appeal and a welcoming sense of community.

Occupying a prime top-floor position within this attractive, purpose-built building, this generously proportioned one-bedroom apartment boasts bright, spacious interiors throughout. The impressive lounge is rich in character, featuring a beautiful bay window, an elegant fireplace and original solid wood parquet flooring, creating a warm and inviting living space.

The well-appointed kitchen offers ample storage and extensive worktop space, comfortably accommodating a breakfast table for relaxed dining.

Continuing the theme of generous proportions, the large bathroom is thoughtfully designed with both a standalone shower and a full-sized bath.

The double bedroom is wonderfully light and airy, enhanced by two large windows that provide an attractive focal point while flooding the room with natural light. There is ample space for wardrobes and additional furnishings, ensuring both comfort and practicality.

Offered chain free, this delightful apartment presents an exceptional opportunity for first-time buyers, downsizers or investors alike.
