Set along a particularly attractive, tree-lined turning within the sought-after Nightingale Estate, this attractive period home is ideally positioned within close proximity to Nightingale Primary School (0.3 miles), while South Woodford Central Line Station lies just 0.4 miles away, offering swift access into the City and West End. Excellent road links, including the North Circular, M11 and M25, are also conveniently nearby.

This beautifully presented home offers bright, contemporary interiors throughout, beginning with a generous entrance hall complete with a convenient guest cloakroom. The ground floor unfolds into an impressive double reception room, arranged to provide a cosy sitting area to the front and featuring a charming central fireplace and large bay window, alongside a substantial dining or secondary living space.

With additional dining provision in the kitchen, the second half of this versatile double reception room could equally serve as a playroom or informal lounge. Sliding doors lead seamlessly into a conservatory extension, creating a further reception space or play area while allowing an abundance of natural light to flow through from the rear garden.

The kitchen/diner is equally impressive, boasting a sleek run of contemporary white gloss cabinetry spanning the length of the room, complemented by integrated appliances and space for a range cooker. Room remains for family dining, making this an ideal hub for both everyday living and entertaining.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with four well-proportioned double bedrooms and a spacious family bathroom, complete with a walk-in shower and separate clawfoot bath. There is also potential to extend into the loft, subject to the usual planning permissions.

Externally, the home benefits from a wide driveway to the front, incorporating a useful, integral storage area with double doors. The rear garden is landscaped to provide a raised patio leading down to a sunken lawn, complemented by a neat side pathway and an additional seating area perfect for outdoor relaxation and entertaining.
