A beautiful countryside property with 5 bedrooms and parking available early September.

- Council tax band F • Stunning sea views in rural setting • Detached garage • Open fire places • Access to South West Coastal Path

Full Description

Nestled within its own private gardens and orchard, this remarkable 1930s detached property offers breathtaking views over Start Bay and the picturesque South Hams countryside.

This characterful and spacious home features a traditional layout, brimming with natural light and period charm. On the ground floor, the sitting room and second lounge enjoy dual-aspect bay-window views and open fireplaces, creating a cosy ambiance. The Dining Room, with its feature fireplace, is filled with light from French doors that open onto the garden, providing seamless indoor-outdoor living. The Kitchen is fully fitted with tiled floors featuring underfloor heating and an array of wall and floor cupboards, a butler sink, and integrated appliances, including a dishwasher, washing machine, fridge freezer, and range cooker. There is also a convenient cloakroom/WC on this level. The first floor hosts a spacious principal bedroom with an en-suite shower room. Two double bedrooms with one set up as a twin room, a bunk bed room and single room. The family bathroom completes the upstairs layout.

Bordering the property is a footpath that connects directly to the renowned South West Coast Path, making this an ideal retreat for nature lovers and walking enthusiasts. From the driveway, a path leads to both the side and front entrances. Set on just over half an acre, the property boasts beautifully maintained level gardens with lush lawns, mature borders, and patio spaces for outdoor dining or relaxation. The gently sloping orchard area, filled with fruit trees and a variety of shrubs, is a peaceful oasis at the rear of the home. At the base of the driveway, there is a detached garage/workshop.

This is a rare opportunity to rent a unique property that combines privacy, panoramic coastal views, and immediate access to the South Hams' beautiful countryside.
