Burnhouse Cottages
Aulhouse, G75 9DP

PROPERTY SUMMARY

Surrounded by beautiful Lanarkshire countryside this charming, three-bedroom, semi-detached cottage set amidst circa 0.3 acre of garden grounds offers the opportunity to acquire a real rural idyll. With its pretty location, deceptively spacious accommodation, and double detached garage/workshop this lovely family home is sure be popular to a broad range of buyers.

The generous layout of apartments comprises; entrance vestibule, reception hallway, bright front facing lounge with log burning stove, dining room with French doors leading to pleasant patio area, double bedroom, fitted farmhouse style kitchen, utility porch, and three-piece shower room

On the upper floor accessed via a light and airy landing are a further two well-proportioned double bedrooms enjoying the best of the stunning outlook, one of which has the benefit of fitted wardrobes. The attic space accessed via the rear bedroom closet has potential to be further developed into an en-suite facility with the necessary planning.

This attractive family home further benefits from oil fired central heating, double glazing, driveway with ample space for multiple vehicles, and a detached double garage currently utilised as workshop by the present owners; the garage has been constructed with a view to being converted into a self-contained annex with electricity, and insulation already in place.
