The property itself retains character and charm, with its double fronted exterior featuring two bay fronted reception rooms, entrance hall and a kitchen with adjoining pantry, separate utility and a ground floor cloakroom.

A private external entrance leads to a brick-built cellar room, brimming with potential to convert into a home office, garden room or creative studio, making the most of the garden's natural seclusion and leafy surroundings.

Upstairs are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, each with access to a Jack and Jill shower room, in addition to a separate main bathroom. Large windows frame views over the surrounding treetops and townscape, adding to the sense of space and privacy.

Externally, although the gardens are now overgrown, the depth and breadth of the plot offer exciting potential for landscaping, extension or redevelopment, subject to the necessary consents.

Just a short walk from the charming and historic heart of Congleton town centre, the property is ideally placed to enjoy a wealth of local amenities. From boutique high street shops to thriving independent restaurants, artisan coffee houses, and the much-loved Congleton Market Quarter, everything is within easy reach. Congleton Park, with its mature trees, river walks and open green spaces, lies only moments away, offering an ideal setting for leisurely strolls or family outings.

For commuters and those seeking easy connectivity, Congleton Train Station is just a few minutes' walk, providing direct links to Manchester, Stoke and beyond, ideal for professionals or weekend city visits alike. Excellent local schooling and swift access to arterial routes such as the A34 and M6 further enhance the practicality of this location.

This is a home brimming with opportunity, perfect for those wishing to put down roots in a prime, well connected part of town. Offered with no upward chain, this is a blank canvas ready to be reimagined.
