To the first floor are three well proportioned bedrooms and a stylishly refitted shower room, spacious in size complete with a walk in shower enclosure and contemporary fittings.

Externally, the property benefits from a good-sized enclosed rear yard and an adjoining rear garden, offering a private and versatile outdoor space ideal for low-maintenance enjoyment or further landscaping potential.

While there is no official parking, there is immediate roadside parking available directly outside the property.

The property's position on Mill Street places it just a short stroll from Congleton's Market Quarter, the vibrant Town Centre, and the picturesque Congleton Park, ideal for leisurely walks and weekend relaxation.

This charming home perfectly blends traditional character with practical living, representing an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, families, or investors alike. Offered with no upward chain.
