High View Heakley Avenue, Stoke-On-Trent ST6 8NF

Occupying an impressive sized plot with an extra wide frontage having gardens extending to three sides, this individually built four-bedroom detached family home offers spacious and versatile accommodation, an extensive frontage with off-road parking in abundance, and far-reaching views across the surrounding horizon.

Council Tax Band: D

The property immediately creates a sense of space upon entering, with a striking reception hall and feature staircase rising to an impressive galleried first-floor landing. The hallway is finished with attractive Karndean flooring and provides access to a useful ground-floor cloakroom.

The generous lounge is an excellent family living space, benefitting from windows providing plenty of natural light together with bi-folding doors opening directly onto the private rear garden. A bespoke media wall creates an attractive focal point, incorporating an inset electric fire, recessed provision for a wall-mounted television and a cleverly concealed panel for media equipment and associated cabling.

The modern dining kitchen provides an excellent everyday family space, fitted with a contemporary range of high-gloss units and offering ample room for a dining table. Leading from the kitchen is a particularly useful home office/study, created from the majority of the former garage and providing a versatile additional room suitable for a variety of requirements. A small section of the former garage has been retained to the front and now provides useful storage.

To the first floor, the impressive galleried landing continues the sense of space and individuality and enjoys far-reaching views towards the horizon. There are three good-sized double bedrooms with fitted/built-in wardrobe storage, together with a fourth room currently utilised as a first-floor laundry. This versatile room could alternatively serve as a fourth bedroom, nursery, study or dressing room, depending upon individual requirements.

Completing the first-floor accommodation is the particularly spacious family bathroom, generously proportioned and fitted with an extensive suite incorporating both a separate bath and double-width walk-in shower, together with fitted vanity storage.

Externally, the property is equally impressive, occupying a substantial plot with wraparound gardens extending to three sides. The extensive frontage provides off-road parking for numerous vehicles, with ample space for the parking of a caravan or motorhome.

A particularly appealing feature of the frontage is the covered canopy/open porch with integrated LED lighting, beneath which an elevated seating area has been created. Perfectly positioned to take advantage of the property's outlook, this provides a wonderful place to sit and enjoy the far-reaching horizon views.

To the rear is an extremely private and low-maintenance garden, predominantly paved to create generous outdoor seating and entertaining areas, complemented by raised planted borders and mature surrounding greenery. Bi-folding doors from the lounge open directly onto the garden, creating a natural extension of the living accommodation and making this an excellent arrangement for entertaining and alfresco dining.

Further enhanced by replacement windows and external doors installed approximately 18 months ago, this is a highly individual family home offering an excellent combination of generous and versatile accommodation, parking in abundance, space for a caravan or motorhome, private wraparound gardens and impressive far-reaching views.

The property enjoys an appealing position within Norton Green, combining a semi-rural feel with convenient access to surrounding towns, villages and everyday amenities. A particularly attractive feature is the direct access from the property onto neighbouring playing fields, opening up a variety of local walks and providing an excellent setting for those who enjoy the outdoors.

The area offers easy access to the canal and surrounding countryside, with pleasant walking routes connecting Norton Green with neighbouring villages including Endon, Stockton Brook and Brown Edge. A selection of traditional local pubs can also be found close by, together with a useful range of amenities within the surrounding villages.

Despite its countryside connections, the property remains well placed for access into the Potteries, together with Biddulph and its wider amenities. Knypersley Reservoir and the surrounding Greenway Bank Country Park are also within easy reach, whilst Rudyard Lake provides another popular destination for walking, leisure and enjoying the surrounding Staffordshire countryside.

This combination of far-reaching views, direct access to recreational space and countryside walks, yet excellent connectivity to neighbouring villages and larger centres, makes the location particularly well suited to family life and those seeking a balance between accessibility and the outdoors.

Reception Hall

Currently utilised as a convenient first-floor laundry room, having uPVC double-glazed window to the front aspect. This versatile room could alternatively be utilised as a small fourth bedroom, nursery, dressing room or study, dependent upon individual requirements.

Family Bathroom

9'1" x 10'7"

A particularly spacious and well-appointed family bathroom having a double-ended panelled bath with deck-mounted mixer tap and shower attachment. Fitted bathroom furniture with marble-effect countertop incorporating inset vanity wash hand basin with storage beneath and WC with concealed cistern.

Generous walk-in double shower enclosure with sliding tinted glass and black-accented fittings, incorporating twin shower arrangement with rainfall-effect shower head and detachable hand shower. Fully tiled walls, recessed ceiling lighting, extractor fan, heated towel radiator and uPVC double-glazed obscure window to the rear aspect. White wood-wash effect flooring and double doors providing access to a useful airing/storage cupboard.

The property has also benefited from replacement windows and external doors, installed approximately 18 months ago.

Externally

The property occupies an attractive and particularly generous plot, enjoying a superb frontage with an extensive tarmacadam driveway providing off-road parking in abundance for numerous vehicles, together with ample space for the parking of a motorhome or caravan.

The frontage has been thoughtfully landscaped for ease of maintenance, incorporating a shaped artificial lawn with decorative slate borders, low-level brick edging and established planting. A particularly appealing feature is the covered canopy with integrated LED lighting, creating an elevated paved seating area to the front of the property which is perfectly positioned to sit and enjoy the far-reaching views across the horizon.

The property has also benefited from the installation of replacement windows and external doors approximately 18 months ago, providing a smart and contemporary finish.

The former integral garage has been sectioned to create the adjoining home office/study, with the remaining garage area now providing useful storage space and retaining access from the driveway.

Gated access leads around the side of the property to the enclosed rear garden, which has been designed to provide an attractive yet relatively low-maintenance outdoor space. Predominantly paved, the garden offers generous areas for outdoor seating and entertaining, complemented by raised brick-edged borders stocked with a variety of established plants and shrubs. Mature trees provide an attractive leafy backdrop and a good degree of privacy.

Bi-folding doors from the lounge open directly onto the rear garden, creating an excellent connection between the internal and external living spaces
