A truly individual and character-filled two-bedroom home, offering an exceptional blend of period charm, bespoke finishes, and versatile living space. Set behind a private, enclosed frontage with gated access, the property delivers immediate kerb appeal along with a welcome sense of privacy.

Internally, the home has been thoughtfully styled throughout, creating a warm and inviting environment that stands apart from more conventional offerings—this is very much a home with personality and presence.

The kitchen forms the heart of the home, fitted with bespoke solid wood wall and base units, complemented by wooden work surfaces and traditional-style finishes. With space for appliances and a practical layout, it flows naturally into the ground floor accommodation, while stairs rising from this space enhance the cottage-style charm.

The lounge is rich in character, centred around a cast iron fireplace with open fire set upon a slate hearth. Solid oak flooring and bespoke shelving add depth and texture, while double doors open into the conservatory, creating a seamless transition between living spaces.

The conservatory provides a bright and versatile additional reception area, ideal for dining or relaxing, with French doors opening out to the garden—perfect for both entertaining and day-to-day enjoyment.

A separate snug/study offers a cosy yet highly functional space, ideal for home working or as a snug, adding valuable flexibility.

The bathroom is fitted with a panelled bath with shower over, pedestal wash hand basin and low-level WC, complemented by tiling and natural light.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress:

Bedroom One is a standout feature, generous in size and cleverly arranged with a stepped, split-level layout that leads through to an adjoining dressing area. This creates a natural division between sleeping and storage space, effectively offering a “two rooms in one” feel. With multiple aspects providing excellent natural light, built-in storage, and a pleasant open outlook, this room delivers both practicality and a boutique-style finish.

Bedroom Two is a beautifully presented and inviting double bedroom, full of charm and warmth. With space for freestanding furniture and a pleasant outlook, it offers flexibility as a guest room, main bedroom alternative, or dressing room if required.

Outside, the property benefits from a thoughtfully arranged, low-maintenance garden. A paved seating area provides the perfect setting for outdoor dining or relaxation, while the enclosed layout enhances privacy. To the rear, additional space offers useful storage and gated access, combining practicality with security.

This is a home that offers far more than first impressions suggest, ideal for buyers seeking character, individuality, and flexible living space. A rare opportunity for first-time buyers, downsizers, or those looking for something with genuine personality in a market often dominated by uniformity.
