Location

Residents at Bagnall Heights benefit from a comprehensive range of facilities designed to promote independent living, including a 24-hour reception, on-site care team, residents' lounge, restaurant/café, hair salon, laundry facilities, guest accommodation for visitors, organised social activities, landscaped communal gardens, secure gated access and ample resident and visitor parking. The development offers a supportive community environment while allowing residents to maintain their privacy and independence.

The development benefits from a welcoming community atmosphere, allowing residents to enjoy an independent lifestyle while having the reassurance of like-minded neighbours and on-site support when required. Bagnall village itself offers local shops, a post office, community facilities and regular social activities, helping residents stay connected and engaged.

For those who enjoy exploring further afield, the nearby market town of Leek and the city of Stoke-on-Trent provide a wider range of shopping, leisure and healthcare facilities. Excellent road links also make it convenient for family and friends to visit.

Bagnall Heights is ideally suited to those looking to downsize without compromising on comfort, offering a secure and low-maintenance lifestyle in a desirable village setting, with the added benefit of easy access to both countryside and town amenities.
