Kitchen Area

This compact kitchen area features a practical white cabinetry unit with an integrated electric hob, multi function oven, and a stainless-steel sink. It is set against a muted wall with a large window providing natural light and views of the neighbouring rooftops. The floor beneath the kitchenette is protected with black laminate tiles, contrasting with the beige carpet covering the rest of the room, creating a clear and functional cooking space within a small living area.

Bathroom

The shower room is neatly fitted with modern white sanitaryware, including a compact sink with a mixer tap beneath a mirror with a wooden frame, and a shower enclosure with textured panels that add a touch of natural stone effect to the space. The layout is efficient and bright, emphasising functionality within a small footprint.

Shared Reception Room

This versatile room offers a bright and inviting space featuring a bay window that allows plenty of natural light to fill the room. It is simply decorated with neutral walls and carpet, creating a blank canvas suitable for a living or dining area. Furnished currently with a small round yellow table and three contemporary wooden chairs, the room also benefits from a traditional wooden chest of drawers and a mirror, adding character and warmth to the space while maintaining a cosy, welcoming atmosphere.

Bedroom Area

This well-proportioned room is finished with neutral tones and a fitted carpet, providing a calm, blank space ready to be personalised. It features a radiator beneath a window that offers views towards the street outside, and several electrical outlets along the walls. The simplicity of this space ensures flexibility for use as a bedroom or additional living area.

Front Exterior

The exterior presents a traditional red brick façade typical of the area, with two bay windows providing character and curb appeal. The entrance to the studio is via the side behind a half glazed sage green painted. The street view shows a quiet residential area with similar neighbouring properties, suggesting a friendly and established community environment.
