PROPERTY

An attractive and stylishly appointed family house offering spacious, light and flexible accommodation, situated in the heart of the highly desired village of West Meon. The property has undergone a significant upgrade by the current owners, with particular notable features including a very striking, open plan and contemporary designed kitchen/ breakfast room with underfloor heating in the kitchen area, glazed roof lantern and bi-folding doors to the outside terrace, three reception rooms, five bedrooms including two double bedroom suites and a generous and very useful garage / workshop.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached via a shingled drive providing parking for several vehicles and access to the garage / workshop. The gardens are attractively landscaped offering principally lawn and mature hedging to the front and stylish and spacious terracing, ideally suited for dining and entertaining purposes with further lawned areas enclosed by mature hedging to the rear.

SITUATION

The property enjoys a convenient, central position in the delightful village of West Meon in the Meon Valley. The village offers many amenities including The Thomas Lord public house, an award-winning village store, butchers, a doctor's surgery, Montessori nursery, primary school and church. More comprehensive shopping and recreational facilities and mainline train stations, with services to London Waterloo in just over an hour, can be found in the nearby larger market towns of Petersfield and Alton, or the city of Winchester. The A3 can be accessed at Petersfield providing good regional links to Guildford and the South Coast. The Meon Valley is part of a gently undulating rural landscape that has remained largely unchanged for hundreds of years in an area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The property lies within the South Downs National Park and there are numerous opportunities for walking, cycling and other country pursuits within the area.
