A rarely available two-bedroom bungalow within this highly regarded over-55s development, situated within walking distance of Rushden town centre.

The superb Cloisters complex is one of Rushden's premier sheltered housing schemes, designed to offer independent living with the reassurance of support and communal facilities when required. Available exclusively to applicants aged 55 and over, each property benefits from an original 125-year lease which renews upon a change of ownership.

This well-presented bungalow offers comfortable and practical accommodation, including a spacious main bedroom with its own ensuite shower room, built-in wardrobes and a door opening directly onto a pleasant garden area shared only with the neighbouring bungalow. The second bedroom also benefits from built-in wardrobes, while a modern shower room featuring a large walk-in shower serves the remaining accommodation.

The Cloisters was originally developed in 1987 within the former grounds of Rushden Rectory and is renowned for its beautifully maintained communal gardens. Residents can also enjoy the use of the Friendship Lodge, a charming communal outbuilding that hosts regular social gatherings, events and opportunities to meet fellow residents, helping to foster a welcoming community atmosphere.

The environment at The Cloisters allows for total independence whilst retaining the security and peace of mind of communal facilities and support should the need arise.
