12 Lake Close, Byfleet KT14 7AE

Situated in a quiet and tranquil Cul-de-sac of Lake Close, Byfleet, this charming detached family house offers three to four spacious reception rooms.

The house boasts four well-proportioned bedrooms, two bathrooms offering flexible living with one on each floor and a large kitchen diner.

One of the standout features of this property is the expansive west-facing garden, which offers a wonderful outdoor space for children to play, gardening enthusiasts to indulge their passion, or simply for enjoying the evening sun.

Parking is also a significant advantage, with space available for up to two to three vehicles.

Located in the heart of Byfleet village, this home is just a stone's throw away from local shops and essential amenities. Additionally, the proximity to commuter links and a mainline station makes it an excellent choice for commuters and families alike.

Planning permission - PLAN/2004/1394

This planning permission granted in 2005 has partly been completed on the ground floor. The remaining part is for an L shaped extension to the right of the property. The extension would start from the kitchen, continue past the lounge and wrap around the garden room. The plans can be viewed on Woking.gov.uk.

N.B Although this planning permission has been implemented, please check with a planning officer to ensure it has not expired prior to making any formal offer.
