PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Situated on the edge of Carnhell Green, a quiet rural village between Hayle and Camborne, is this semi detached family home backing on to open countryside. The property enjoys an incredibly private, sunny garden and spacious accommodation comprising a large entrance hall/dining room, kitchen, utility, cloak room, large lounge, three comfortable bedrooms and a family bathroom. The main bedroom boasts a walk-in wardrobe which was previously an ensuite and opens onto an impressive balcony with stunning countryside views. A driveway provides parking for three cars whilst the main gardens lie to the front and side boasting all day sunshine, privacy and mature boundaries. There is also a covered patio area which is great for storage and entertaining along with the added benefit of a well used static home which offers great versatility, perfect for children to have their own space. Other benefits include LPG central heating, double glazing, a double sided wood burner which when in use helps to heat most of the house.

Carnhell Green is perfect for rural living offering plenty of walks, a local shop and easy access to the popular seaside town of Hayle. Hayle is situated on the North coast and is approximately five miles away and offers a range of cafes, restaurants and shops plus a beach with miles of golden sand. The beaches at Gwithian and Godrevy are also approximately three miles away from the property. Camborne is approximately two miles away where a main line railway to London can be located together with bus services to Truro.
