PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

No Onward chain! A fantastic opportunity to purchase this very well presented detached bungalow, set in approximately 1.25 acres. Enjoying rural views and a real sense of space, the bungalow is perfect for a growing family with the accommodation comprising a welcoming entrance hall, dual aspect lounge, kitchen with integrated appliances, utility with cloak room, four piece family bathroom, three double bedrooms plus a potential fourth bedroom currently used as a dining room.

Outside, the property is approached through double vehicular gates onto a long private driveway providing ample parking along with a large garage with electric door. You are immediately aware of your rural surroundings and the historical mining history of the area with countryside views lying beyond approximately 1.25 acres of gardens and grounds and disused Engine house and Chimney stack. The gardens are laid to lawn and are bathed in all day sunshine with the end of the land offering a more natural area with mature trees and an attraction for wildlife.

The location is rural yet convenient with the village of Praze less than one mile away and the main town of Camborne with a range of retail and leisure facilities, schools for all ages and mainline railway approximately 2.5 miles distant.
