PROPERTY

Set in five acres is this individual single story three bedroom stone faced barn conversion with recently installed air source heat pump with gardens and terrace, which would be ideal for those with equestrian interests with five acres of level pasture land and split into paddocks and protected by mature natural hedging with a timber stable block, yard area and to the left hand side of the field would be suitable for a sand school/menage.
The property offers accommodation that briefly comprises: kitchen, L-shaped lounge-diner, three bedrooms, bathroom and WC/utility room. Outside to the rear are formal gardens.

LOCATION

The location is such an important attribute to this wonderful home, set down a long quiet driveway and set in a small courtyard of four other barns and resides in a tranquil and very unspoilt rural spot, with good riding out on nearby bridle ways and also the North Cornish Coast ideal for riding, walking and swimming is just about three miles away.
The popular towns of Hayle and with a small shopping centre with Marks and Spencer's and Boots is on the towns fringe, and Camborne, are only a few miles distant and the city of Truro with its extensive range of shops is only about 17 miles away.
