Hayle offers a good range of everyday amenities, including supermarkets, independent shops, cafés, restaurants, leisure facilities and local services, with further shopping and entertainment available in nearby St Ives and Penzance. The town is particularly renowned for its beautiful coastline, with approximately three miles of golden sandy beaches stretching from the Hayle Estuary towards Gwithian and Godrevy, providing excellent opportunities for swimming, surfing, walking and enjoying the spectacular coastal scenery. The Hayle Estuary itself is a haven for wildlife and forms part of an important nature reserve.
