PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

A stunning, bright, three-bedroom family home which is presented in excellent order. The accommodation briefly comprises entrance hall, cloakroom/WC, open-plan living room/dining room with tiled floor, a well-fitted kitchen and on the first floor is a main bedroom with ensuite, two further bedrooms with views out towards the Towans and to Phillack church and a family bathroom. To the side of the house is an attached garage, (loosely divided into a workshop and a store room). To the side there is parking and to the rear is a lovely west-facing decking area, a lawn area and further storage area.

LOCATION

Hayle is a small coastal town in the far southwest of England, in Cornwall, known for its sweeping beaches, estuary views, and relaxed seaside character.

It sits at the mouth of the Hayle River, where it opens into a large tidal estuary that's important for wildlife—especially birds. The estuary is part of a designated nature reserve, so you'll often see waders and migrating species if you visit at the right time.

Historically, Hayle was an industrial hub during the 18th and 19th centuries, tied to Cornwall's mining boom. It had foundries and engineering works that supplied mining equipment across the region. Today, that industrial past has mostly faded, leaving behind a quieter town with a mix of old buildings and modern development.

What really defines Hayle now is its coastline. Just beyond the town are miles of golden sand, including Hayle Towans—a vast stretch of dunes and beach that leads toward St Ives. The beaches are popular for walking, surfing, and taking in big Atlantic views.

The town itself has a practical, lived-in feel rather than being purely tourist-focused. You'll find local shops, cafés, and a growing number of galleries and small businesses, alongside supermarkets and residential areas. The schools are also of note with various primary schools and within a short walk of here is the senior school, Hayle Academy. It's also a convenient base for exploring west Cornwall, with good road and rail links.

ENTRANCE HALL

With front door, tiled floor, panelled radiator, door to:

CLOAKROOM/WC

Double-glazed window to front aspect, tiled floor, wash basin, low-level WC with concealed cistern and handmade feature wood shelf and built-in double cupboard.

GARAGE

This is a standard size garage, but has been loosely divided into a WORKSHOP with power and light and pedestrian door to rear decked area. To the front is a storage cupboard, ideal for keeping bikes and surfboards etc.

OUTSIDE/GARDEN

To the front or the property there is a driveway providing a PARKING SPACE. To the rear of the property is a raised deck area, ideal for enjoying the late afternoon/evening sun with steps leading down to the rear garden area which is laid to lawn, storage space under decking area.

SERVICES

The property is connected to mains gas, electricity, water and drainage. It is heated via a combination gas-fired boiler, which is located in the kitchen.

DIRECTIONS
