Property Description

This is a delightful traditional cottage that has been renovated over recent times and now since early 2026, benefits from a brand new roof on the main property and outbuildings.

The property offers a blend of modern day living with some lovely character that old cottages have with beamed ceilings and open fire places.

Accommodation briefly comprises, entrance porch/sun room, open plan kitchen/diner, sitting room/Dining room, utility room, WC/cloakroom and on the first floor three bedrooms (one ensuite) and family bathroom. Outside is a lovely cottage style garden with lawned areas, seating and decking areas and a number of useful and sizable outbuildings.

Location

This home is situated within the maturing clay village of Whitemoor, it has access to great walking and cycling routes in addition to having its own primary school and chapel. Whitemoor is a short proximity to neighboring villages where further amenities such as pubs, takeaways, convenience stores and post offices can be found. Easy access to the A30 is only a 10 minute drive which provides great ease for those needing to get in and around the county. The main borough of St Austell is reachable within 15 minutes and offers a more comprehensive range of retailing plus offers a mainline railway station with direct access to London Paddington. Attractions such as the world famous Eden Project, Lost Gardens of Heligan and Charlestown Harbour, known for its role in the Poldark series, are also located there.

Outside

Externally this cottage sits beautifully within its boundaries and enjoys having a wrap around, sunny aspect garden with a timber decked seating / entertaining area. The garden provides a safe, enclosed space for children and pets whilst also having great access to the various outbuildings and driveway. There are outside power sockets plus security lighting.

Outbuildings

There are five purpose built outbuildings which vary in size (5.77m x 2.74m / 3.58m x 2.50m / 3.28m x 1.68m / 2.87m x 2.23m / 2.66m x 2.53m). They could be used for various things such as workshops, storage areas, potting rooms or outside laundry spaces with the outbuilding closest to the driveway benefitting from having an inspection pit. Some of these outbuildings have power and light already connected to them. There is also access to two outside W/C's.

Parking

To the side of the property there is a graveled driveway suitable for parking multiple vehicles, there is also an electric car charger point already linked up and to be included within the transaction. In addition there is a singular space within the chapel grounds, adjacent, which was 'gifted' to the cottage for continuous use and will be passed on to the new buyers upon completion.

Services

The property is connected to mains water and electricity and has its own septic tank for drainage. The central heating is fueled via LPG. The property falls within Council Tax Band B.
