PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Mermaids Cove offers an extremely rare opportunity to purchase a delightful, characterful, Grade II listed cottage with accommodation arranged over three floors, situated within a prime location, enjoying delightful views and offering direct access onto the beach below.

LOCATION

St Ives, Cornwall is a charming seaside town on England's north coast, known for its sandy beaches, turquoise waters, and vibrant art scene. Once a fishing village, it became an artistic hub with attractions like the Tate St Ives and Barbara Hepworth Museum.

At the centre is the picturesque St Ives Harbour, lined with cafes, galleries, and fishing boats—perfect for seaside strolls and boat trips. The town is family-friendly, with schools including St Ives School (secondary) and local infant and junior schools. Combining natural beauty, culture, and community, St Ives is a popular place to visit and live.
