VENDOR SUITED! SHORT STROLL TO THE BEACH! A rare opportunity to acquire a unique three bedroom detached property originally constructed around 1898 but fully updated and modernised in recent years and with the benefit of being set just one road back from the seafront. The property comes with low maintenance courtyard style garden and detached garage with double width driveway to the rear along with a carport, other features include two reception rooms and downstairs cloakroom along with re-fitted kitchen and family shower room and both a separate first floor W.C and downstairs cloakroom. The current owners have maintained the property to a high specification with solid wood flooring, double glazing and updated central heating system and the property is offered in very good order through out. If you are looking for a low maintenance home a short stroll to the seafront as well as Lee On Solent High Street you really should consider an early viewing.
