versatile. The kitchen sits within the heart of the house with access to the separate utility room, WC and integral garage that has light and power. The kitchen has a rear facing aspect looking out to the rear garden and offers base level units with space for fridge and freezer.

Returning to the hallway, stairs lead to all three bedrooms and family bathroom. Bedroom one is a front aspect room with a large window offering plenty of light and a built in storage cupboard with double doors. Bedroom two is a rear facing room that also benefits from a large window overlooking the rear garden and offers a built in wardrobe with double doors. Bedroom three has a front aspect with sea glimpses. The bathroom has been cleverly designed with an electric overhead shower and bath, wash hand basin and low level WC. The landing provides access to the airing cupboard and partially boarded loft.

Outside

The front garden is laid to lawn for ease with ample parking to one side. There is a wide side access with space for a shed and side access with gate into the rear garden. There is also potential to extend the current accommodation into this space (subject to the necessary consents). The rear garden has a patio area abutting the utility room and dining room.

Location

The property is located in the popular location of The Grove on the Isle of Portland. Portland is known for its spectacular cliffs, small cove beaches and breathtaking views. Portland provides a variety of shopping and business outlets, including a petrol station, Tesco supermarket, butchers, hairdressers, Co-op, variety of public houses and educational facilities as well as many leisure pursuits, in particular, excellent sailing, fishing and water sports facilities including those at the Weymouth & Portland Sailing Academy. The coastal resort of Weymouth is reached over a causeway from Chesil Beach and is within easy reach by car as well as regular bus services from the island.
