Oxbridge Terrace, London

Forming part of the iconic, boutique gated Palace Wharf development is an outstanding Riverside freehold house offering generous accommodation across four floors. The extraordinary location of the property on the banks of the River Thames allows for the most wonderful, and peaceful, views from most internal rooms as well as from two private west facing balconies and a lovely top floor west facing private terrace,

This extraordinary home, recently built to the very highest of standards, provides finely balanced living and bedroom accommodation starting with a beautifully crafted ground floor kitchen, equipped with Miele appliances throughout, utility room and cloakroom. On the first floor is the most incredible double reception room and private balcony capitalising on the iconic aspect and views across the River. On the upper two floors are three generous bedrooms and two high specification bathrooms including the fabulous top floor principal suite also benefitting from the same iconic outlook.

The location of the property in this quiet corner of Fulham, with a range of local shops, bars and restaurants (including the Michelin starred River Cafe at nearby Thames Wharf), allows for easy access to Central London and the West End to the east and to Heathrow Airport to the West via the nearby A4/M4.
