Prince of Wales Terrace, London

We are delighted to offer a stunning two-bedroom apartment with a conservatory and private terrace with spectacular views over Kensington.

The apartment is situated within a super prime Georgian building in the heart of the Royal Borough of Kensington & Chelsea.

The 843 SQ FT apartment is situated on the third floor and comprises an open-plan integrated kitchen with a Juliet balcony, a large reception/ dining room with impressive entertaining space, bi-fold doors leading onto a superb inside/outside private south-facing balcony, two double bedrooms with ensuite bathrooms, & guest powder room.

Hidden away in a cul-de-sac off Kensington Road sits 21 Prince of Wales Terrace, a grand five storey building built in the 1860s, exuding elegance. This stately Victorian residence with impeccable character, occupies a position of undeniable status and prestige in one of London's most exclusive postcodes. A luxurious collection of 13 interior designed apartments, enriched by effortless functionality and sympathetically modernised to suit 21st Century living.

There is a dedicated building manager on site to offer tenants a completely bespoke and tailored service that covers everything from maintenance to day-to-day living. Pet friendly with on-street parking available via paid permit.
