

A bright, empty room with a fireplace and three large windows. The room features a white fireplace with a black arched opening on the left wall. The floor is made of light-colored wood in a herringbone pattern. Three large, white-framed windows are positioned along the right wall, each with a black radiator underneath. The windows offer a view of a street with parked cars and greenery. The ceiling is white with several recessed lights. The walls are a light cream color.
