OUTSIDE

This charming Barn Conversion is set in large delightful gardens with established trees and hedgerows and a wide path extends around the property, laid to chippings. There is a driveway providing parking for a number of vehicles. Patio area.

General Information

The property is freehold.

All main services are connected except gas.

Please note there is a public footpath proceeding through the rear garden.

In the garden is the oil storage tank and separate oil fired central heating boiler.

There is a electric pump fitted to the sewage chamber, shared with the cottage next door. Shared maintenance costs are split 50/50. A sub metre to be fitted to share the cost of the day-to-day electric to run the pump. This pumps the sewage to the main sewer in the road.

Please note: Solihull Metropolitan Borough Council have granted permission (16th Dec 2024) for the conversion of agricultural buildings into 3 residential dwellings, in the Farm Yard. Ref PL/2024/02496/PNCUDW
