GENERAL INFORMATION

The property is freehold.

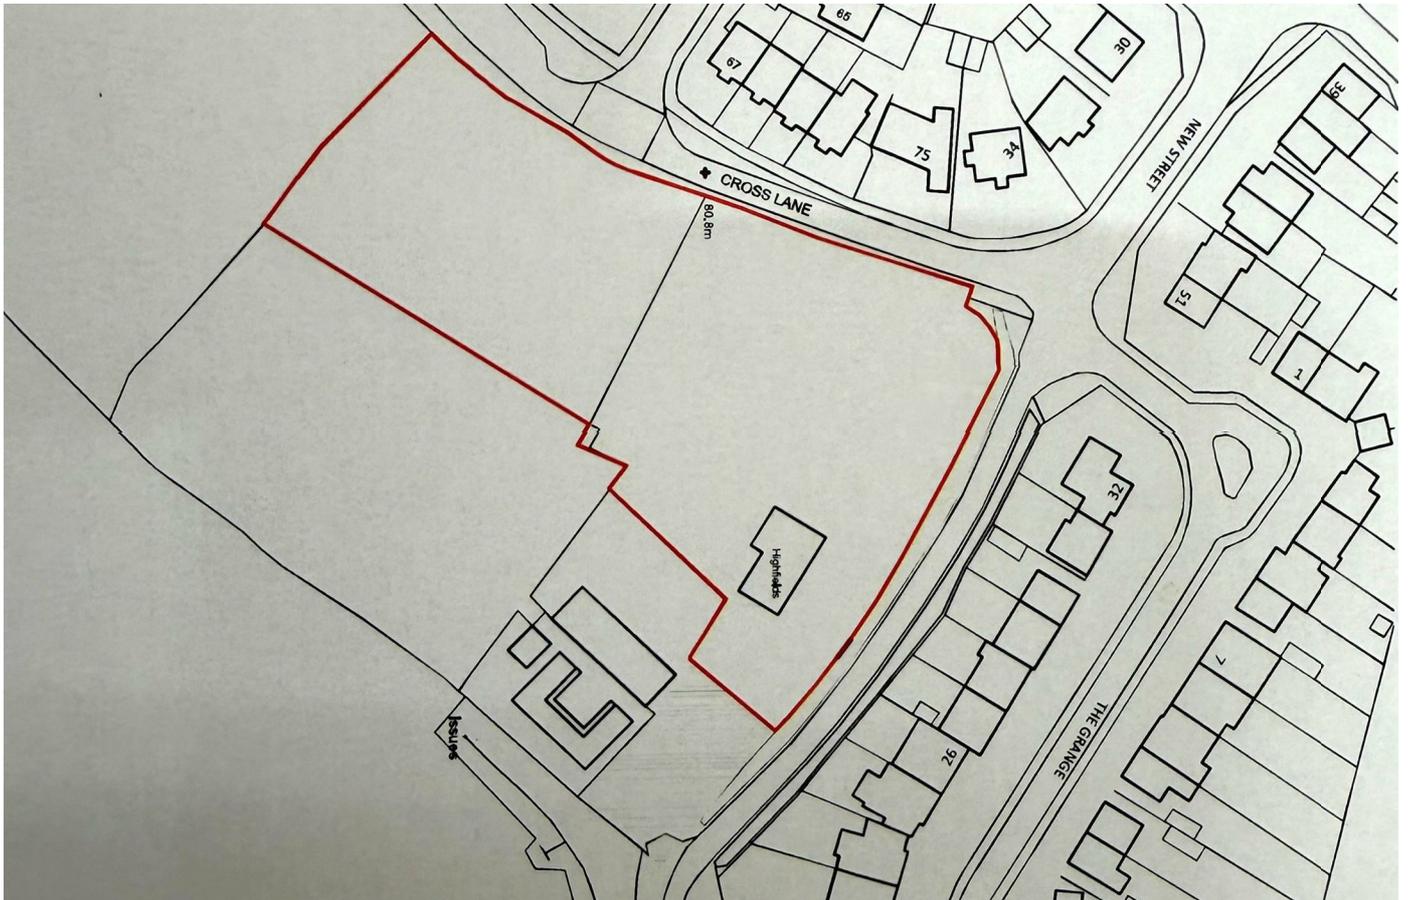

All main services are connected except main drains, for which there is a septic tank.

The property is approached via a shared drive with the property next door and arrangements have been drawn up via the Solicitors for the cost of it's maintenance.

We understand from the sellers Solicitors, the restrictions will be normal transfer of parts restrictions as follows:-

- Buyers to pay towards the maintenance and upkeep of the shared driveway.
- For 10 years from the date of completion, no building on the garden land/fields except for domestic shed/outbuilding. Thereafter, an overage will apply to any possible future development on the site. Terms to be confirmed.
- Only roadworthy vehicles allowed in parking spaces – ie, no commercial vehicles including caravans or campervans parked from the main shared driveway.
- There is a wayleave in place for electricity and there will be adequate rights for other services noted in the transfer document.
