This well presented detached property in Fishponds is delightful. It has a large lounge, an open plan kitchen/family room and conservatory, hallway and a utility room/ cloak room on the ground floor. Upstairs there are four good sized bedrooms with fitted wardrobes in three of them, a family bathroom and a very open landing area. The loft has been boarded and is currently used as an entertainment area for the younger members of the family.

The lounge has a multi fuel wood burner for cosy winter evenings. The kitchen is very modern and has a large island. There are marble worktops on all the units and the island. It really is the heart of the home. The under floor heating in the conservatory allows for all year round use and is currently the dining room.

There is off street parking for several vehicles at the front of the property and there is an EV charger. The rear garden is laid out with patio and decking areas, mature trees and shrubs and an area of artificial grass.

Located close the the vibrant Fishponds area in the north east of Bristol with its wide variety of shops and restaurants and local amenities this area is popular with families and professionals alike. There are a number of primary and secondary schools nearby with ratings of Good and above.

Local open spaces include the Olbury Court Estate and Eastville Park with walks along the river Frome joining the two areas.
