Welcome to Newhall Road — The house that keep on going!!!!

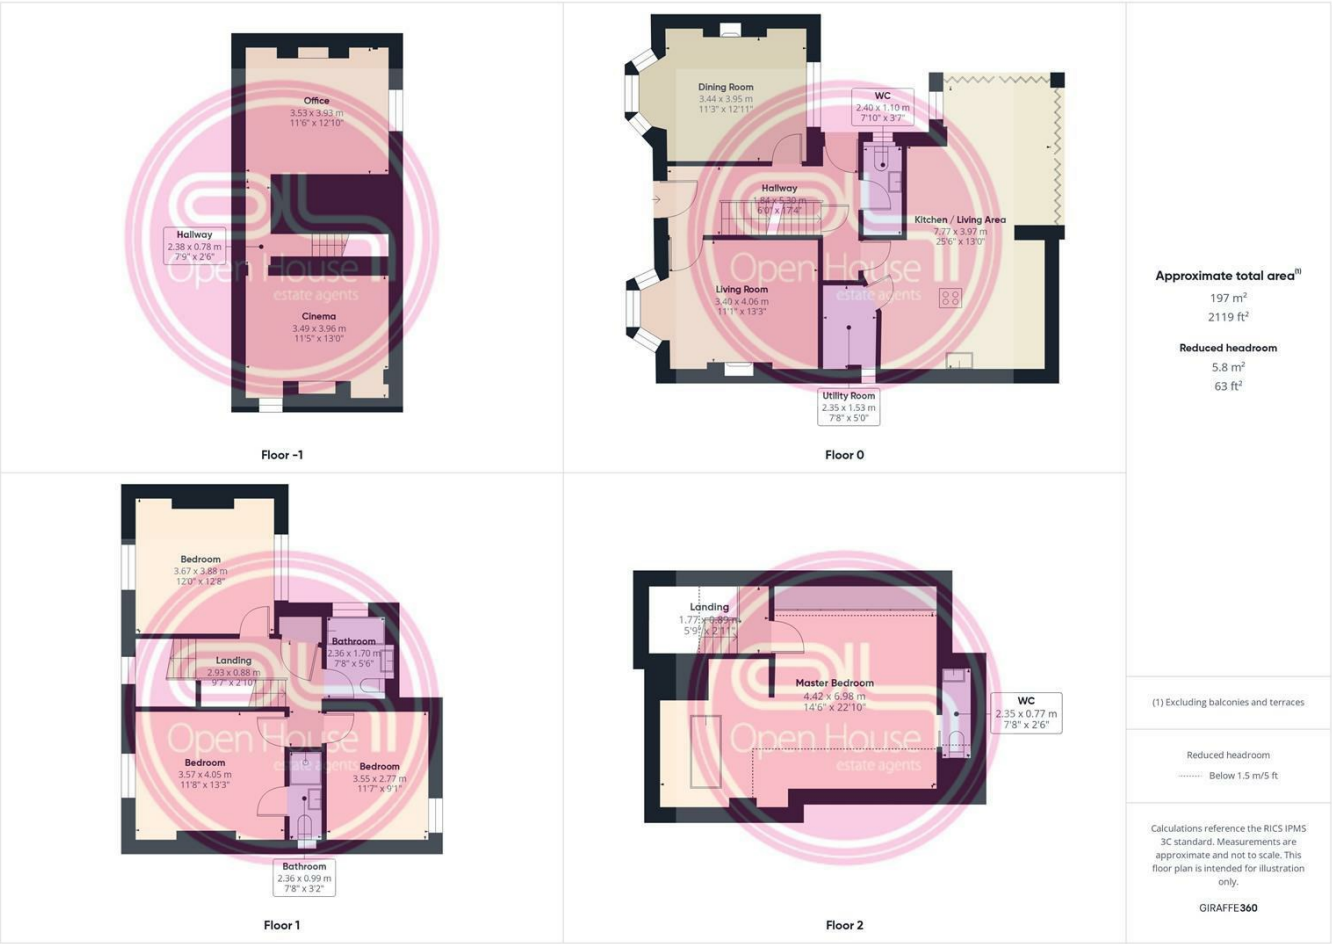

A beautifully presented character home offering generous and versatile accommodation arranged over four levels. This unique property blends traditional period charm with a high-spec modern finish, creating the perfect long-term family home.

Highlights include a stunning open-plan kitchen/living space with bi-fold doors to the garden, a luxurious second-floor master suite with freestanding slipper bath, and a fully converted basement level with cinema and home office. All four bedrooms are doubles, including two with en-suites, and the property features three reception rooms, a landscaped garden, a home gym, garage and off-road parking.

Located within easy reach of Swadlincote town centre, excellent schools and transport links, this is a rare opportunity to secure a home that delivers space, style, and substance in equal measure.
