We are pleased to present: A much improved mid-terraced Victorian house, in a sought-after area, on the western side of the town centre. Hall, Sitting Room - Fireplace, Dining Room - Fireplace, Inner Hall, Kitchen/Breakfast Room, Shower Room/Utility, Converted Cellar/Bedroom 3/Playroom/Study, 2 Double Bedrooms, Gardens, Parking Space, Many Character Features, NO CHAIN, VIEW ASAP.

DESCRIPTION

This attractive property, which is believed to date from the Victorian era, presents with brick elevations, and a tiled roof. It is well presented, having been improved over the years, with works including an extension and replacement windows. The Cellar has previously been converted into a Bedroom/Playroom/Study, and there is both a Shower Room on the ground floor, and a Bathroom on the first floor. This chain-free, spacious home has the advantage of an off-road parking space to the rear, retains many character features, including fireplaces, picture rails, high ceilings and stripped pine doors, and together with its location, on the sought-after western side of the town centre, and within easy access of amenities and the station, means early viewing is strongly advised.

BURY ST EDMUNDS & AREA

Sitting amidst beautiful countryside, Bury St Edmunds is an historic town and the second largest in Suffolk. Surrounded by many picturesque villages, some of which offer good local amenities, it offers a wide range of cultural, educational and recreational facilities.

Features of particular note include St Edmundsbury Cathedral with its Millennium Tower, the famous Abbey Gardens with the original ruins and The Georgian Theatre Royal, which has recently been the subject of a restoration programme and The Apex, a live performance venue for concerts, comedy and dance, together with a contemporary art gallery. In addition, there are two cinemas, one of which is a multi-screen complex and a sports centre.

Bury St Edmunds and the surrounding villages boast excellent schools and further education is catered for at the West Suffolk College.

The town benefits from extremely good shopping facilities with a twice weekly market and a wide range of independent traders, national chains, five supermarkets and the arc shopping centre, opened in 2009. In addition, there are many pubs and restaurants which cater for a variety of tastes.

TRANSPORT LINKS

The A14 dual carriageway heading west from Bury St Edmunds provides easy access to Newmarket, Cambridge, the Midlands, Stansted Airport and London, via the M11. Stowmarket and Ipswich, both with direct rail links to London's Liverpool Street, the East Coast and the A12 are all readily accessed by heading east.
