Full Description

Located in a fantastic quayside location on Portland Beresford House was originally constructed as a Naval Canteen, finished in red brick with Portland Stone detailing. This apartment is a part of the 'helicopter control and boasts stunning high ceilings, and elegant oversized windows, allowing light to flood in and gives an abundance of visual interest.

To qualify for shared ownership, please read below criteria, outlined by Places for People .

- o Council tenants and housing association tenants.
- o Those who can avoid the need for social tenancies, for example those on housing waiting lists and considered by Local Authorities to be in priority housing need
- o Those that will address housing problems in local and regional housing markets, for example key workers and then other first time buyers
- o We will consider applications from people who have previously owned their own home if they:
 - previously owned a home with a partner and that relationship broke ? down.
 - need to move into an area because of their job and are unable to afford to buy outright.
 - are shared owners whose income has fallen and they could only stay as home owners by moving to a smaller, cheaper home.
 - are shared owners whose family has grown but who are still unable to afford to buy outright.

AND the applicant must meet all of the following criteria:

- o In the opinion of Places for People can afford to purchase the property and sustain ongoing housing costs.
- o Have savings or access to funds that will cover the initial costs of buying, such as mortgage product fee; legal fees; survey and valuation fees; deposit on exchange of contract; and stamp duty.
- o Be in permanent or fixed term employment.
- o Aged 18 or over.
- o Have a bank account
- o Have a maximum annual income of £80,000 (or, in London £90,000).
