the location

Set close to good local amenities, there is a frequent bus route into Bristol city centre at the end of the road, the comprehensive facilities of Kingswood are a short drive away, St George park and Church Road, with it's range of independent shops are also a short distance.

what the owners will miss

"It's an ideal location, with the park, pub and some convenient shops nearby. It has been an ideal first solo home. Bathroom installed 2021. Easy to care for and feels secure."

just a thought...

If you haven't considered this area before think again! Excellent value for money, surprisingly close to a range of good local facilities and Bristol city centre, plus parking, What's not to love!
