what the owners will miss

" About our home... After nearly ten years here, what we'll miss most are our neighbours and the warm community around us. Our allotment, St George Park, and Troopers Hill have been places to grow, gather, and watch hot air balloons and fireworks light up the Bristol sky. Our home at Cromwell Road has been warm, peaceful, and secure - a gentle haven. We hope it continues to bring joy to all who live beneath it's roof. Owner 2016-2026"

just a thought...

Conveniently located with easy access to bus routes into the city centre, as well as the popular amenities of Church Road and St. George Park. This home is ideally suited to first-time buyers seeking both space and character. Early viewing is highly recommended.
