Introducing 37 Mulgrave Avenue...

Very rarely does such an immaculate traditional semi detached home in this prestigious part of Ashton on Ribble reach the open market. As soon as you enter the porch you are met with black and white Minton flooring and solid wooden original door to the breathtaking entrance hall. From here the essence of this truly wonderful home is really appreciated. All the original internal doors provide a sense of the era alongside the excellent quality, and access the three reception rooms and generous size well quipped fitted kitchen, complete with a multi-fuel cast iron stove to a gorgeous mantel surround, as well as a stylish orangery overlooking the beautiful rear gardens. Built circa 1912–1914 and retains many quality original features, including encapsulated leaded light windows to the front of the property, cast iron feature fireplaces, and beautiful window casings to frame the beautiful fenestration. All the rooms are flooded with natural light and the accommodation offers spacious and bright rooms and sits in a generous plot with a south facing rear garden. There is a utility room and downstairs cloaks W.C. The spindled gallery landing area has a large original skylight and accesses the spacious four bedrooms, and the family bathroom.
