Introducing 212 Liverpool Road...

Set within approximately 2 acres, this exceptional property offers a rare combination of substantial family living, equestrian appeal, and outstanding development potential. The extended four-bedroom semi-detached home is complemented by a detached barn, partially adapted shippon, and quadruple slate-roof garage, with permitted development approval already in place for conversion of the barn and shippon into dwellings.

The extensive outbuildings provide further scope for redevelopment or alternative uses, subject to the necessary consents, while the generous grounds lend themselves perfectly to paddocks, a sand arena, or other equestrian facilities. Accessed via a wide driveway suitable for horse boxes and larger vehicles, this is a highly versatile lifestyle and investment opportunity.

Property Summary

Set within approximately 2 acres of well-planned grounds, this exceptional property presents a truly rare and versatile opportunity for purchasers seeking a substantial family homestead, equestrian lifestyle, or a site with significant development potential. The property comprises a generously extended four-bedroom semi-detached residence together with an impressive collection of detached outbuildings, including a substantial traditional barn, a partially adapted shippon, and a quadruple detached slate-roof garage. Importantly, the barn and shippon benefit from permitted development approval for conversion into separate dwellings, offering immediate scope for multi-generational living, holiday accommodation, rental investment, or resale opportunities. Beyond the existing approvals, the scale and footprint of the outbuildings provide considerable further potential, subject to the necessary consents, for additional redevelopment or reconfiguration. The abundance of existing structures creates substantial cubic capacity, making this an especially appealing proposition for developers, investors, or buyers seeking to maximise the site's future value. The grounds extend to around 2 acres and are thoughtfully arranged to accommodate a variety of uses. For equestrian purchasers, the land lends itself perfectly to the creation of paddocks, a sand school or arena, and associated facilities. A wide-access driveway serving the barn and outbuildings is ideally suited for larger vehicles, including horse boxes, agricultural machinery, or trade access. The main residence itself offers spacious and flexible accommodation, comprising four well-proportioned bedrooms and two bathrooms, alongside three principal reception rooms, a farmhouse-style dining kitchen, and a conservatory overlooking the grounds. The combination of substantial living accommodation, extensive outbuildings, and outstanding future potential makes this a highly adaptable and increasingly rare lifestyle and development opportunity.

The Property

Stepping into the property through the entrance hallway, you are welcomed into the inviting reception lounge, which provides access to most of the ground floor accommodation. From here, you enter the main lounge, a generously proportioned space featuring a corner fireplace, triple-aspect windows, and double patio doors opening onto the rear garden. Continuing through, you reach the well-sized kitchen, which benefits from attractive stone flooring, traditional timber cabinetry with matching worktops, and ample space for freestanding appliances. There is also room for a dining table, along with access to useful understairs storage. Off the kitchen, a light-filled conservatory offers double patio doors leading directly to the rear garden. Returning through the reception lounge, you will find the dining room, complete with a large front-facing window and a traditional fireplace. A practical WC and separate shower room complete the ground floor accommodation.

The Barn

The converted barn situated to the rear of the property is partially completed and presents an excellent opportunity for further customisation to suit individual requirements. Arranged over two floors, it briefly comprises a welcoming entrance hallway with WC, a spacious lounge with patio doors opening to the rear, and a large kitchen/diner complemented by a separate utility room. There are three double bedrooms, one located on the ground floor, each benefitting from its own en-suite facilities.

The Plot

Externally, the property is set within approximately two acres of land, incorporating open fields and woodland areas, along with an enclosed play space and a separate garden featuring a patio area, ideal for outdoor enjoyment. In addition, there are two double garages providing further storage options, as well as a private driveway to the front offering off-road parking for multiple vehicles. The scale and versatility of the grounds must be seen in person to be fully appreciated, and early viewing is strongly advised to avoid disappointment.
